

I am writing in
COMPLAINT to Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to FORCE
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary only
days before the election. This is a clear example of
media consolidation
and abuse of the
airwaves.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free
of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Showing a bias documentary
right before the election is not
serving the
democracy of the public interest, but instead serving the interest of the Bush administration. It is more important
that we see real people from our own
communities and more
substantive news
about issues that matter.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
more than a returned postcard. Please do not allow Sinclair
to air the
anti-Kerry documentary. Thank you.
